Pagan Calendar 6 - 19 April

April 6 In France, a children's springtime festival takes place on this day. Miniature pine boats, each holding a burning candle, are cast into the estuaries of the Moselle River to symbolize the "sea of life" and the happiness of sailing its sacred waves.

April 7 The Blajini (or "kindly ones") are celebrated annually on this day in various parts of Rumania. This is a sacred day in which offerings are made to the beneficial spirits of the water and the Underworld.

April 8 On this date in 1994, a group of Pagans carrying placards, banners, balloons, and streamers paraded joyously in Gainesville, Florida. They praised the Mother Goddess and invited all to celebrate the beauty of life. The focus of this Freedom of Religion Parade (sponsored by the Alachua Pagan Alliance) was to highlight the religious diversity of the community and to help foster tolerance.

April 9 Feast of A-Ma. Once a year on this day, the ancient goddess A-Ma is honored with a religious festival in the Portuguese territory of Macao. A-Ma is the patroness of fisherman and all those who sail the sea. This day is sacred to all Amazon goddesses. In England, the Hocktide Festival takes place on this date each year to celebrate the triumph of the Saxon she-warriors who battled against Danish invaders in the year A.D. 1002.

April 10 According to Celtic folklore, the Sun dances each year on this day. In many parts of Ireland, people arise at the first light of dawn to watch the Sun "dance" in a shimmering bowl of water. Bau, the Goddess Mother of Ea, was honored each year on this day in ancient Babylonia with a sacred religious festival called the Day of Bau.

April 11 On this day each year, cross-inscribed loaves of bread are traditionally baked in honor of the Roman goddess Diana. In Greece, branches of evergreen, myrtle, or bay were worn by children on this day for protection against the venomous evil eye. In Armenia, the goddess Anahit is honored annually on this day with a sacred festival. She is a deity of both love and lunar power who dwells within the silver light of the Moon.

April 12 The Cerealia, an annual festival of the goddess Ceres, was celebrated by the ancient Romans in order to secure the fertility of the crops. The sacred rites of Ceres began on this date and were observed for eight consecutive days. In Taiwan, the goddess who presides over birth (Chu-Si-Niu) is honored annually on this day with a religious festival. Pregnant women go to temples dedicated to her in order to receive blessings for their unborn children.

April 13 On this day, an annual festival of water is celebrated by Buddhists in Thailand. Buddha statues are ritually bathed and the water is thrown on the faithful to purify and "wash away" the evil spirits of the previous year. The festival lasts for three consecutive days.

April 14 According to superstitious belief, the fourteenth day of April is a very unlucky time for travel, especially by ship. (It was on this date in the year 1912 that the oceanliner Titanic collided with an iceberg and sank to the bottom of the sea.) Whether the Titanic tragedy spawned the superstition or merely served to reinforce it is unknown. Maryamma (or Mariamne), the Hindu goddess of the sea, is honored in India with a sacred festival which begins annually on this day.

April 15 In ancient Rome, the earth-goddess Tellus (or Tellus Mater) was honored annually on this day. A pregnant cow was traditionally sacrificed at her sacred festival and the unborn calf burned in a bonfire to ensure the fertility of the crops. Also on this day, the Festival of the Iron Phallus (Kanamara Matsuri) is celebrated annually in Kawasaki City, Japan. The ancient Japanese deities associated with sexuality and human reproduction give their sacred blessings and encouragement; especially to couples who wed late in life or to men who suffer from declining potency.

April 16 Every year on this day, the god Apollo was worshipped and supplicated by his faithful cult in ancient Greece. An annual festival called the Hiketeria was celebrated in his honor. On this date in the year 1946, Pagan author Margot Adler was born in Little Rock, Arkansas. Her Wiccan handfasting on June 19, 1988 was the first Neo-Pagan Wedding to appear in the New York Times' society pages.

April 17 In the Himalayan kingdom of Nepal, an annual religious event called the Chariot Festival of the Rain God begins on this day. It is dedicated to Machendrana, the ancient and powerful Indian god of rain. The festival is celebrated for approximately eight consecutive weeks.

April 18 The Festival of Rama-Navami is celebrated every year on this date at sacred shrines throughout India. It honors both the great Hindu god Rama (the seventh incarnation of Vishnu) and the goddess Sita.

April 19 On this date in the year 1824, Lord Byron (whose real name was George Gordon) died of a fever. The English poet, who was known for dabbling in the occult arts, helped shape Mary Shelley's Frankenstein and gave John Polidori the idea for this novel The Vampyre. Lord Byron's heart was removed from his corpse and buried in Greece; the rest of his remains were shipped back to England.

In the last few years the Correllian Tradition has developed so many wonderful offerings that it is important to remind members of these opportunities.

Correllian Offerings is a Division headed by Lady Sande Smith whereby the Tradition highlights one Tradition-wide Department or Project, on a regular basis; explaining what that particular Department offers to the Tradition's membership (some outside the membership).

Each post will be a simple explanation with contact info; if membership desires more details then join the Help Desk whereby Lady Windy will offer assistance. CORRELIAN HELP DESK

Note to Network Radio Posters:

How to post your Radio Shows outside your Temple, Shrine or Order.

-Temples, Orders, Shrines or Individuals' presentations may be found within their own Group.

Temples, Orders, Shrines or Individuals' radio shows can be found at

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1616809878551421/>

If you have your own radio network outside Pagans Tonight or The World Walkers' Forum, you are welcome to announce your show in THIS WEEK'S RADIO SHOWS or of course your own groups. Correllian membership will be encouraged to join this radio show group if they desire to be kept abreast of what is being offered through Temples, Orders, Shrines and Individuals. This Group has been created to curtail the over saturation of radio network announcements yet giving everyone the opportunity to announce their radio shows.

To recap:

--You are welcome to post all your show reminders to any related groups in one post, once a week.

--Post as often as you like in the THIS WEEK'S RADIO SHOWS facebook group.

--Post as often as you like in your own groups that you lead.

Radio Show Hosts Posting Requirements

All radio show hosts will be asked to present their standing within the Tradition so that there is no confusion to the general membership.

If a Correllian member has clergy credentials from another Tradition please include the Tradition you received your Clergy standing when posting your Radio shows on Correllian groups.

If HP of another Tradition please post your radio announcements with correct credentials.

Example: Correllian First Degree Student / Rev. Blue Blade HP of Isian Tradition. Sponsored by Green Wings Witan Shrine.

The above example makes it clear your network/show is individually sponsored, Shrine sponsored or Order Sponsored. And that the host is a First Degree student in our Tradition. Correllian members, Temples, Orders, Shrines in good standing are most welcome to post their radio announcements in THIS WEEK'S RADIO SHOWS group

(<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1616809878551421/>)

Thus membership may enjoy, with confidence that they are listening to a Correllian member in good standing, with no confusion or awkward misrepresentation.

These solutions should remedy three concerns:

1. Membership will not be over saturated with Radio show announcements.
2. Clarifies if radio show is sponsored by a Temple, Shrine, Order, an individual or the Tradition.
3. Hinders individuals misrepresenting themselves to the Correllian membership.

We encourage everyone to express and present their teachings through Blogtalkradio.com, everyone equally has something to share with all of us. It is very easy to set yourself up for a free 30 minutes per day show in blogtalkradio.com. All we ask is that you post your radio shows in THIS WEEK'S RADIO SHOWS (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1616809878551421/>) and your own groups.

We are pleased to see so many members with radio networks, hope to see many more step up within this venue. This is a good problem that we just needed to tweak a little so that the general membership can find out about everyone's show within a less saturated manner.

We understand that it will take a few days for everyone to be compliant. We know everyone will do their best.

Thank you and Blessings,
M. Rev. Don Lewis Highcorrell
and
The Elders' Council

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace'

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward.

The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace

I pray for Love

I pray for Stability

I pray that Love may overcome Fear

And I send energy of Love and Peace

For all people of the World

I create it, I accept it, and I receive it

By my will so mote it be!

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfill a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Personal Shrines

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.
