Pagan Calendar 10 – 23 August 2015

August 10 A centuries-old festival called Ghanta Karna Day is celebrated annually around this time of August in the Himalayan kingdom of Nepal. The event celebrates the death of Ghanta Karna, a blood thirsty Hindu demon who haunts crossroads and is the sworn enemy of the god Vishnu.

August 11 On this day, an Irish fertility festival known as the Puck Fair begins. The medieval-style festival, which pays homage to the mischievous sprite Robin Goodfellow, continues for three consecutive days.

Oddudua, the "Mother of all Gods", is honored on this day by followers of the Santeria religion in Africa and South America.

August 12 The goddess Isis and her search for Osiris (her brother and consort) is commemorated on this day by the Lychnapsia (Festival of the Lights of Isis). Dried rose petals and vervain are burned in small cauldron pots or incense burners as offerings to Isis, and green candles are lit in her honor.

August 13 On this date, the major Pagan festival of Hecate is traditionally held at moonrise. Hecate, the mysterious goddess of darkness and protectress of all Witches, is a personification of the Moon and the dark side of the female principle.

August 14 Every year on this date, a "burryman" (a man wearing a costume of thistle burrs, and representing an ancient fertility god) walks through the streets in many of the fishing villages along the coast of Scotland, collecting donations from the villagers. The origin of the burryman remains a mystery.

August 15 Festival of Vesta. The ancient Roman goddess of the hearth was honored annually on this date in ancient times. Many modern Witches light six red candles and cast herbs into hearth fires on this day to honor Vesta and to receive her blessings for family and home.

August 16 Salem Heritage Day in Massachusetts. On this date in the year 1987, the first Harmonic Convergence as observed worldwide during the Grand Trine (the alignment of all nine planets in our solar system). The event, which lasted for two consecutive days, was believed to be the beginning of five years of peace and spiritual purification. Thousands of New Age enthusiasts gathered at various sacred sites to dance, chant, meditate, and tune into the positive energies of the Earth and the universe.

August 17 Festival of Diana. Every year on this date, the goddess of chastity, hunting, and the moon was honored by the ancient Romans. This is a special day of feasting, mirth, and magic-making for many Dianic Wiccans, since Diana is the most sacred goddess of their tradition.

On this date in the year 1950, Oglala Sioux mystic and medicine man Nicholas Black Elk died in Manderson, South Dakota. He was known for his great powers of prophecy and healing, and was an adherent of the Ghost Dance, a short-lived Native American religious movement which ended in a tragic massacre at Wounded Knee, South Dakota, in 1890.

August 18 On this date, the annual Festival of Hungry Ghosts is celebrated throughout China with burnt offerings to the spirits of the dead.

On this date in the year 1634, a parish priest named Father Urbain Grandier was found guilty of bewitching a group of nuns at a convent in Loudun, France, and causing them to be possessed by demons. He was condemned to be tortured and then burned alive in the public square of Saint Croix.

August 19 In ancient Rome, a wine-harvest celebration known as the Vinalia Rustica was held each year on this date. It was dedicated to the goddess Venus of the Grape Vine and also to Minerva.

On this date in the year 1692, the Reverend George Burroughs and John Willard were put to death on Salem's infamous Gallows Hill as punishment for the crime of Witchcraft.

August 20 On this date in the year 1612, ten women and men known as the Lancashire Witches were executed on the gallows in one of England's most famous Witch trials of the seventeenth century. Ironically, the nine-year-old girl who had supplied the court with incriminating evidence against the Witches was herself found guilty of Witchcraft twenty-two years later and executed in the second great Witch trial of Lancashire.

August 21 The Consualia, a harvest festival celebrating the storing of the new crop, was held annually on this date by the ancient Romans. Also celebrated on this date was the muscular deity Hercules, who was honored with a sacrifice at one of his shrines in the city of Rome. His annual festival was called the Heraclia

August 22 On this date in the year 1623, the Order of the Rosy Cross (a secret sect associated with alchemy and reincarnation) was established in Paris, France. The mysterious Rosicrucian brotherhood was condemned by officials of the Church as worshipers of Satan.

This day is sacred to Nu Kwa, an ancient Chinese goddess identified with the healing goddess Kuan Yin.

August 23 The Volcanalia festival was celebrated annually on this date in ancient Rome. It was dedicated to Vulcan, the god of volcanic eruptions, and celebrated by frying fish alive to ward off accidental fires.

Each year on this date in Athens, the ancient Greeks celebrated a festival dedicated to Nemesis, the goddess who presided over the fate of all men and women.

Calling All Correllians

We need your help in identifying Correllians regarding membership.

This announcement is for our new members whom have requested information and individuals that consider themselves a Correllian member, however never officially joined the Tradition.

Every week we receive messages on how our teachings and members have changed their life. We are grateful for all your kind words.

For years we have received supportive sentiments of our spiritual tenants and find our practical offerings just as helpful when working within our Tradition. As we read comments we have also found many think they are Correllian and are within the Tradition's infrastructure and are not truly connected to our Tradition.

This letter encourages everyone that think they are Correllian to check with the Tradition's Records' Office or fill out the membership application form below, then submit to the Records' Office Lady Windy Lajoie : Windy0716@aol.com and cc Chancellor Don Lewis Highcorrell DonlewisHP@aol.com After one submits their application form, you will receive a Welcome Letter informing you of what main groups to join so that you may get connected to the Correllian community.

By not officially joining the Tradition you are missing out on so much community and learning opportunities, plus it is much easier to move through the Tradition and find out what is available. Examples of this, did you know there is a complaint Office? Did you know there is a Help Desk? Did you know you can take a course through Blogtalkradio? Go to the Help Desk and open the Q & A Map and you will be amazed!

The Correllian Tradition and Witch School provides the following to its ever growing international membership:

Because we believe in diversity, everyone is welcome to become a Correllian member. We accept and respect everyone unless empirical reasons reveal otherwise. In unity everyone is welcome to retain or join other Traditions.

We give everyone the opportunity to directly speak to the Tradition's Chancellor through a chatroom every week.

Every week the Chancellor speaks to the Tradition via Blogtalkradio.com and encourages individuals to phone with questions.

Chancellor Don Lewis Highcorrell speaks via a YouTube channel almost every day and encourages questions.

Every student is assigned a qualified trained Mentor to work closely together as the student completes clergy requirements for each degree. If inappropriate clergy behavior is exhibited, Mentors or their own Imperium is there to clarify issues.

Witch School provides many varied insightful classes through the net and in-person Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines and Study Groups, throughout the world.

The Spanish speaking world community continues to translate our teachings and lead successful outreaches in many countries.

A diverse community of lovely clergy and membership.
Formal clergy training with helpful Mentors
Teaching Temples
In-person and net rituals.
Hundreds of insightful courses from many paths and subjects in Witch School,
The Tradition's Intensive Videos
A strong international infrastructure through in-person groups and the net.
Reasonable prices for clergy training, while other training is completely free.
A diverse world-wide active community to create enduring relationships or community based projects.

We hold hundreds of groups on the net throughout the globe.

We offer a Help Desk if someone needs information.

We offer net Reiki classes through the Order of Reiki and in-person Reiki classes in Florida and Georgia.

Once a month there is a radio show called "Meet the Elders" on Blogtalkradio.com

Every week at least one in-depth teaching is presented by our leadership on Blogtalkradio.com

The Sea Priestess course can be secured through Blogtalkradio and transcripts.

Our Chancellor has written four insightful books on Correllianism.

We offer Correllian Shaman training through a hands-on intensive course.

We offer World Walkers' training via Blogtalkradio.

First Degree Requirements through Witch School:
Complete with a 3.0 gpa all assigned courses and projects.
Given a positive recommendation from Mentor.
Pay and pass a background check.
Write a 500 word Bio essay.
Complete Clergy application.
Become active within Witch School or Tradition Communities.
Become involved with your own community.
Work closely with Mentor.
Courses to complete with Mentor:
First Degree Lessons with Chancellor Don Lewis-Highcorrell 13 Lessons and tests and extensive essay final exam.
Two extensive book reports or two formal theses.
Complete tests or projects for:
The Five Mystic Secrets Course
Correllian Philosophy
Correllian Ministry
Submit reasonable Clergy Initiation fee paid to the Tradition via PayPal after training is completed.
1st, 2nd and 3rd Degree applications payable to: correllian_nativist_church@yahoo.com

*Some Temples and Mentors require more hands-on projects and require essay tests for every course, within every degree, along with the essay finals.

We embrace everyone's uniqueness. Everyone is given many hands on experiences through assignments, projects, Mentors, chatrooms, rituals community work and so on...

Regarding Regalia: - Most symbols we wear represent active work we are involved in the Tradition or community. No one is required to display their rank and work symbols. In fact our state robes are usually reserved for high rituals. We wear our vestments as a sign that we are collectively working for the globe in unison. The main sigils worn on our vestments represent what we are collectively and individually working on within this life time for humanity and in honor of our ancestors.

Everyone is permitted to utilize the "The Common Book of Witchcraft and Wicca" within their own groups because it is completely copyright free.

Our talented volunteers work from a few hours a month to several hours most days of the week and this Tradition is blessed to have many devoted workers and we thank you for all you do!

We are always busy helping new members daily to find their way through information overload. Our advice is to take a few free classes, join Chancellor Don Lewis-Highcorrell on Monday nights on the chatroom or the chatroom on Pagans Tonight Radio Network. Join a couple of Facebook groups, especially the Correllian Tradition Membership Hub, that we usually call The Hub.
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/CorrellianMembershipGroups/> and start a conversation with a new friend.

A SPIRITUAL WAR FOR PEACE

Please join the members of the Contemplation Temple each month for the global rolling peace Prayer.

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace'

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward.

The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace

I pray for Love

I pray for Stability

I pray that Love may overcome Fear

And I send energy of Love and Peace

For all people of the World

I create it, I accept it, and I receive it

By my will so mote it be!

If you have participated in the rolling peace prayer each month and would like to add your area to the rolling peace prayer map please email your country and area to:

“Faces of Correllianism” is a place where Correllians can send photos of themselves, their altars, their pets, as well as artwork, autobiographies, descriptions of events and projects, essays and poetry to share with all Correllians. Through “Faces of Correllianism” we hope to show what a strong, diverse, and positive community we are.

If you would like to have your photo, writing, or artwork included, please email it to me at DonLewisHP@aol.com together with your authorization to use it at www.correllian.com You will of course retain any copyright. Please do not send us anything that is copyrighted to anyone other than yourself, unless you include their permission.

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfill a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Prison Ministry Formal Shrine

The Prison Ministry Formal Shrine is to function as a bridge to breach the gap between inmates that are still called by Deity and who want to learn and/or correspond with members of the Correllian Tradition. This is a dedicated group that will not judge others' past, but help them pave a way into their future growth.

If you are interested in or already assisting with any type of Prison Ministry, please consider joining. You are required to be a registered member of the Correllian Nativist Tradition and at least 21 years of age. I am looking for people to assist with correspondence, and possible mentoring of inmates. If interested, please sign up at the following group:

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonravenx3@yahoo.com.
