Pagan Calendar 16 - 29 March 2015

March 16 The annual Hindu festival of Holi is held in India on this date to celebrate Spring and to commemorate the burning death of the child-eating, she-demon known as Holika.

On this date in the year 1946, J.Z. Knight, the famous spirit channeller for the ancient entity known as "Ramtha", was born in New Mexico.

March 17 Saint Patrick's Day

On this date in the year 1893, Eileen J. Garrett (a gifted medium, psychic, and founder of the Parapsychology Foundation) was born in Ireland. At a young age, she began experiencing visions of the dead. She was granted United States citizenship in 1947 and she founded her own publishing house (Creative Age Press) and magazine (Tomorrow, a journal of paranormal phenomena). She established the Parapsychology Foundation in 1951, and wrote numerous books under the pen name of Jean Lyttle. She died in France on September 15, 1970.

March 18 In ancient times, the Pagan fertility-goddess known as Sheela-na-gig was honored annually on this date in Ireland. With the advent of Christianity, the identity of the goddess was altered from heathen deity with oversized genitalia to the consort or mother of Saint Patrick. On this day in the year 1877, psychic and "absent-healer" Edgar Cayce (also known as the Sleeping Prophet) was born in Hopkinsville, Kentucky. He was renowned for his psychic visions and miraculous ability to accurately diagnose illnesses and prescribe remedies while in a self-induced trance. He prophesied the Second coming of Christ in the year 1998, followed by cataclysmic changes of the planet. Edgar Cayce died on January 3, 1945.

March 19 The Akitu, an annual Babylonian New Year festival celebrating the marriage of Heaven and Earth, begins on this date and lasts for ten consecutive days.

In ancient times, Greek theatrical performances known as the Uban Dionysia began annually on this date in honor of the god Dionysus. They continued for five consecutive days. Also, a festival called the Lesser Panathenaea was held at this time. It was dedicated to the goddess Athena. Sitala, a goddess who reigns over smallpox and death, is honored on this day in India as part of the Hindu New Year ritual.

March 20 Rosicrucian New Year

On this day, an annual Spring Harvest Festival was celebrated in ancient Egypt, along the banks of the River Nile, in honor of the Mother-Goddess and the enchantress, Isis.

This day is sacred to the goddess Fortuna, the Morrigan, the Norns, the Three Fates, and the Three Mothers (Lakshmi, Parvati, and Sarasvati).

March 21 On this date (approximately), the Sun enters the astrological sign of Aries. Persons born under the sign of the Ram are said to be courageous, intelligent, impulsive, and aggressive. Aries is a fire sign and is ruled by the planet Mars.

March 22 On the first day of Spring (which normally occurs on or near this date) the Spring, or Vernal, Equinox is celebrated by Wiccans and Witches throughout the world. Spring Equinox (which is also known as Festival of the Trees, Alban Eilir, Ostara, and the Rite of Eostre) is a fertility rite celebrating the birth of Spring and the reawakening of life from the Earth.

On this sacred day, Witches light new fires at sunrise, rejoice, ring bells, and decorate hard-boiled eggs--an ancient Pagan custom associated with the Goddess of Fertility. The aspects of the Goddess invoked at this sabbath are Eostre (the Saxon goddess of fertility) and Ostara (the German goddess of fertility); in some Wiccan traditions, the Green Goddess and the Lord of the Greenwood are worshipped on this day. Like most of the old Pagan festivals, Spring Equinox was Christianized by the Church into the religious holiday of Easter, which celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

On this date in ancient Rome, uprooted pine trees were carried through the streets of the city by the devotees of the cult of Attis and taken to his sacred temple as part of an annual ritual (Procession of the Tree-Bearers) to mourn the god's demise.

March 23 Dance of the Salii. On this date in ancient Rome, the gods Mars and Saturn were invoked each year by dancing priests brandishing spears and clashing holy shields. The evil spirits of Winter were thus expelled from the city, and the growth of crops and gardens was stimulated through sympathetic magic.

In the Polish countryside, an old Pagan festival of Spring called the Marzenna is celebrated annually on this date with singing, dancing, and the "sacrifices" of straw effigies.

March 24 Day of Blood. In ancient Rome this was a time of deep mourning. It was an annual religious custom on this day for people to lacerate themselves with knives and for new priests to castrate themselves and spill their blood on the altar in the temple of the Mother-Goddess Cybele.

March 25 The Hilaria (Festival of Joy) was celebrated annually on this date in ancient Rome. It was a joyous event which commemorated the triumph of day over night after the Vernal Equinox. The festivities were brought to a close with a "ceremony of washing" which was believed to promote fertility.

March 26 Solitude Day. This is a time for Wiccans and Neo-Pagans to spend the day (or at least part of it) by themselves, meditate in solitude, and reconnect with their "inner-selves." Take a quiet walk in the woods or stroll down a deserted beach and listen to the music of the sea. Explore an old barn or write a Goddess-inspired poem.

March 27 In ancient Rome, the fertility and wine-god Liber Pater was honored annually on this date (and sometimes on the seventeenth of March). His festival, the Liberalia, was a time of feasting and drinking, and a day when young males entered into their manhood.

Gauri, the goddess of marriage and abundance, is honored on this date in India with an annual women's festival and swinging ritual.

March 28 The Eka Dasa Rudra (an eleven-week-long Balinese festival consisting of thirty ceremonies) is held on this date approximately once every one hundred years to restore the balance between the forces of good and evil. The festival, which is ancient in origin, reaches a climax when thousands of pilgrims gather at the volcano temple to observe animal sacrifices made to appease the god Rudra. In Taiwan, the birthday of the goddess Kwan Yin is celebrated annually on this date.

March 29 The annual Festival of Ishtar is celebrated by many Wiccans on this day in honor of the Assyrian and Babylonian goddess of love, fertility, and battle. As a Triple Goddess, Ishtar represents birth, death, and rebirth.

On this day, an annual masquerade ritual is held by the Bobo people of Africa to restore the balance of Nature and to ward off evil spirits. Special prayers and offerings are made to the gods of rain and the gods of the harvest.

CNT Fundraising Office seeking items for Silent Auction

Greetings fellow Correllians, Witch School members and friends of the Correllian Tradition.

Once again, we are preparing for the semi-annual Silent Auction to be held in conjunction with the Lustration of the Ancestors to be held April 24 – 26th, 2015 in San Antonio TX.

Hosted by Sacred Moon Garden Temple

<https://www.facebook.com/events/276278905829831/>

This silent auction is an important fundraising project as the Tradition will need to have funds to ensure Chancellor Don Lewis attends the Parliament of World Religions being held in Salt Lake City, UT in October 2015. A number of other Correllians are also planning to attend at their own expense, so if you are interested and would like to join them, check out the following link: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/848790758473203/> for details.

As in the past, we come to you as a source for donation of items to be listed on our webpage so individuals from all over the world can bid on and help raise funds to support the Correllian Nativist Tradition. Maybe you have been doing some early spring cleaning or rooting through your closets and shelves to make room for your newest purchases or hand-crafted items. Items related to our Pagan / Wiccan path have always been popular to bidders each time we hold this event as the energies of the donor and bidder meld together in the family we belong.

Books, statuary, altar tools, jewelry, regalia and such, as well as homemade items / crafts are very popular. Check out some of the past auctions; most recent to oldest at:

<http://correllian.com/silentauctionfall2014>

The Silent Auction will begin in 4 weeks and be available for worldwide bidding through April 23rd. and then, starting on Friday April 24th. All items will be taken to Texas and be on display and available for bidding during the Lustration Weekend.

This year's Lustration of the Ancestors should be a wonderful occasion as Correllians and friends of the Tradition gather in San Antonio, TX. If you are able to attend, we encourage you to do so, as an opportunity to see old friends and meet new ones.

<https://www.facebook.com/events/276278905829831/>

Those who wish to donate items for this upcoming event, please contact me at cntfundraisingoffice@earthlink.net for the mailing address.

Ostara

Celebrated in the Northern Hemisphere

As spring reaches its midpoint, night and day stand in perfect balance, with light on the increase. The young Sun God now celebrates a hierogamy (sacred marriage) with the young Maiden Goddess, who conceives. In nine months, she will again become the Great Mother. It is a time of great fertility, new growth, and new born animals.

The next full moon (a time of increased births) is called the Ostara and is sacred to Eostre the Saxon Lunar Goddess of fertility (from whence we get the word estrogen, whose two symbols were the egg and the rabbit).

The Christian religion adopted these emblems for Easter which is celebrated on the first Sunday after the first full moon following the vernal equinox. The theme of the conception of the Goddess was adapted as the Feast of the Annunciation, occurring on the alternative fixed calendar date of March 25 Old Lady Day, the earlier date of the equinox. Lady Day may also refer to other goddesses (such as Venus and Aphrodite), many of whom have festivals celebrated at this time.

Easter and Ostara Crafts ~ Eggs by Diane Claus

Egg Dyeing

Eggs

Food Dye

Cake Pan

Tablespoon or Tongs or Coat Hanger

There are two ways of coloring eggs.

1 step dyeing - If you are dyeing large batches of eggs and you want them to be solid color then I would recommend adding the color of your choice in food dye to water you are going to use to hard boil the eggs. I like the colors to be bold so I add a bit more food coloring than is needed and I let the eggs sit in the water until they are cool to the touch.

Then I take them out and let them dry, normally in a cake pan.

Once they are dry I let my 3 year-old decorate the eggs with stickers and markers. I found this to be a less messy alternative and is one that I highly recommend for younger kids.

If your kids want to hand decorate eggs then all you need is a piece of short wire that has a loop on the end big enough to hold an egg steady yet small enough that the egg does not slip through. An inexpensive metal coat hanger will work. If you do not wish to destroy a coat hanger you can use a tablespoon or a set of tongs.

First boil the eggs for about 10 minutes in a pot of water.

While the eggs are boiling set up small cups of water. The cups need to be big enough to completely submerge one egg with a little room to spare.

Next add a few drops of food coloring to the cups of water. You can mix the basic colors to achieve any number of colors. The sky is the limit on making your own shades of colors.

Allow the eggs to dry.

Pick an egg and put it into one of your cups with dyed water. Allow to sit for 30 second to 1 minute before removing. The longer you leave the egg in, the bolder the colors will be.

Dish Towel Bunny

Materials:

1 dish towel
2 washcloths
Ribbon

What you do

Lay the dishtowel on the table with the wrong side up. Fold in thirds lengthwise. Fold in thirds again. Set aside.

Take one of the washcloths and starting at one corner roll to the middle. Roll the opposite corner to the middle to meet it This will be the ears.

Fold the top part of the dishtowel down about 1/3 of the way. Take the washcloth "ears" and lay them inside the fold--Grab the ears by the points and pull up tightly

Tie with a piece of ribbon as close to the dishtowel as you can (tie a bow with the ribbon)
Tie another bow under the bulge you made with the ears. This makes the head. Starting at the edge roll up the other washcloth This will be the arms.

Slide the "arms" in between the back and front of the dishtowel up to the "neck". Tie a bow under the arms. This makes the waist.

Bring the "hands" to the front and tie at the "wrists" with another bow

You should have a little lady bunny ready to hold some wooden spoons, an Easter basket, flowers, etc.

The Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside

(A Children's Story) Author Unknown

One crisp autumn day a boy named Peter was looking for something to do. His mother was busy making applesauce and couldn't stop to play with him, so she suggested that he go on a quest.

"What is a quest?" asked Peter.

"A quest is a search for something important that is very hard to find," said his mother.

"What shall I look for?" asked Peter.

His mother thought for a moment. "You could look for the Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside," his mother said.

Peter had never heard of such a strange house, but he supposed that it would be more fun to go on a quest than to sit and wait for the applesauce to cook, so he put on his jacket and hat and set out on his way. Peter didn't know where he should start looking, but he knew his mother would never set him a task that would be too hard for him to accomplish, so he walked along the street looking at all the houses.

All of the houses he passed had doors and windows and none of them seemed like the sort of house that would have a star inside.

Peter saw a little girl playing in the park. He decided to ask her if she knew about the Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside.

The little girl said, "I have never heard of such an unusual house. Let's go ask my father. He is a farmer. He knows how to make the crops grow and when it will rain. Maybe he knows about the Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside."

Peter followed the little girl. They walked down the lane, over the hill and to a small white farmhouse. The girl's father was sitting on the porch. Beside him were bushel baskets of golden corn and squash, which he had harvested that morning.

"Daddy," said the little girl, "This is Peter. He is looking for a Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside. Do you know where he can find it?"

The farmer took off his hat and scratched his head. "I heard of such a house once, but I never tried to find it. Maybe you should ask my Granny. She is very old and very wise. She knows how to make apple pies and red mittens. Maybe she can tell you where it is."

Peter set of down the road looking for Granny's cottage. He walked all morning and was beginning to get very hungry when he finally arrived at the Granny's gate. The old lady was sitting in rocking chair on the front porch knitting some red mittens.

"Excuse me, Granny" said Peter, "The farmer told me that you might be able to help me with my quest. I am looking for the Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and with a Star Inside. Could you help me?"

The old woman's face was as wrinkled as an apple doll's. It wrinkled even more when she squinted at Peter and smiled. "I have heard of that house, but I never tried to find it. Perhaps you should ask the Wind. He sees and hears everything."

Peter walked to the top of a high hill and called to the wind. "Excuse me, Wind, do you know where I can find Little Red House with No Doors and No Windows and a Star Inside?"

"Yes-s-s-s," answered the Wind in its gusty voice. "I know where that hous-s-s-se is-s-s-s. Follow me."

Peter followed the wind. Sometimes the wind would push him gently in the direction it wished him to go and other times it would snatch off his hat and throw it into the air in a silly game of catch.

They went down the hill and through the vale. They finally arrived at an apple orchard. The Wind climbed into a tree and threw an apple down to Peter. Peter picked up the apple and looked at it.

The apple was red as rubies and shiny in the sun. With its stiff brown stem sticking up like a chimney it did look like a little house with no doors and no windows.

"But what about the star?" asked Peter. "Where is the star?"

"Ins-s-side," whispered the Wind. "Cut it open from s-s-side to s-s-side."

Peter took his pocket knife and did as the wind instructed. He cut the apple from side to side and when he opened it, there was a star inside holding the apple's seeds.

"Thank you, Wind" called Peter as he ran towards his home.

"You're welcome, Peter," whistled the Wind.

"Granny, I found it! Thank you for helping me," he shouted as he ran past her cottage.

Granny just nodded and smiled.

"Farmer, I found it! Thank you for helping me," he shouted as he ran past the farmer's corn field.

The farmer waved and smiled.

Peter didn't stop running till he got home. "I found it, Mom!" he said.

"I knew you would" smiled his mother as she gave him a big hug and a spoonful of applesauce.

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfill a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers
