Pagan Calendar 4 - 18 May

May 4 Fairy Day. According to Irish folklore, it is on this day that the mischievous fairy folk emerge from their hiding places. To prevent human children from being stolen by the fairies and replaced by grotesque changelings, an offering of tea and bread must be left on the doorstep for the little people.

For protection against fairies while travelling (especially through heavily wooded areas or open fields), wear your coat inside out. This is said to cause them such great confusion that they are unable to cause any trouble.

May 5 On this date in the year 2000, according to a group called the Lemurian Fellowship, the legendary lost continent of Mu will rise up from the Pacific Ocean.

In various parts of Mexico and Central America, centuries-old rain ceremonies are performed every year on this day by shamanic priests and priestesses of the Old Faith. The ancient goddesses who preside over rain and fertility are honored and invoked with prayers and offerings.

May 6 On this day in the year 1938, the Long Island Church of Aphrodite was established in West Hempsted, New York, by the Reverend Gleb Botkin, a Russian author and son the court physician to the last Czar of Russia.

May 7 On this date (approximately), a festival called the Thargelia was celebrated by the ancient Greeks and Ionians in honor of Apollo, the god of the sun, prophecy, music, medicine, and poetry. The festival was held once a year on the sacred island of Delos, the traditional birthplace of Apollo as well as the goddess Artemis.

May 8 In Cornwall, England, the annual Furry Dance is performed in the streets of Helston on this day in honor of the old Celtic Horned God in the guise of Robin Hood. The festival, which features street dancing and a daylong procession throughout the town for good fortune, is one of the oldest surviving Springtime ceremonies in the world. Theosophists commemorate the death of Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky on this day, which they call White Lotus Day.

May 9 An annual rite called the Lemuria was performed on this date in ancient Roman times to appease the restless spirits of the dead (Lemures), who materialized on this day to haunt the homes where they had once lived. The Lemuria was also held on the eleventh and thirteenth of May. As part of the rite, black beans (symbolic of the Underworld) were tossed as offerings to the ghosts and a powerful prayer was recited nine times.

May 10 The sacred marriage of the god Shiva to the goddess Meenakshi is celebrated annually on this date by faithful followers in Madurai, India. Sacred hymns are sung and offerings of incense and white flower petals are made at all temples dedicated to Shiva. Tin Hau, the Chinese goddess of the North Star, is honored annually on this day with a festival in Hong Kong.

May 11 On this date in the year 1659, the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay Colony banned all celebrations of Christmas in the New World after declaring the event to be a Pagan festival of superstition and "a great dishonour [sic] of God." In England, Christmas festivities had been banned by the Puritans seven years earlier. It wasn't until the year 1660 when Charles II was restored to the throne that the law banning the celebration of Christmas was repealed.

May 12 On this date, the annual Cat Parade is celebrated in Belgium in honor of the furry feline, an animal sacred to the ancient wiccans and often used as a familiar of Witches. Aranya Sashti, a god of the woodlands, is honored in India on this day with an annual festival. He is identified with the Pagan honored deities Pan and Cernunnos.

May 13 On this date in the year 1917, the Goddess in the guise of the Virgin Mary appeared to three peasant children in Fatima, Portugal. The event, which was the first of six divine appearances from May 11 to October 13, drew worldwide attention.

May 14 The Festival of the Midnight Sun is celebrated annually on this date by Pagans in far northern Norway. The festival, which pays homage to the ancient Norse goddess of the sun, begins at sunrise and marks the beginning of ten consecutive weeks without the darkness of night.

May 15 On this date in ancient times, the Romans performed an annual purification rite consisting of the "sacrifices" of twenty-seven straw puppets to the river god of the Tiber.

May 16 On this date in the year 1918, famous Italian spiritualist-medium Eusapia Palladino passed away. She was best remembered for her ability to enter a state of trance and levitate during séances.

May 17 In the Philippines, a Neo-Pagan fertility ritual is celebrated every year on this date by married couples who wish to have children. The rites (dedicated to Santa Clara) continue until the nineteenth of May.

May 18 The Feast of Twins. On this day, festivals honoring twins are held annually in the African republic of Nigeria. It is widely believed among the Yoruba people that all twins are born with abundant magical and supernatural powers.

Chancellor's Lustration Report

Lustration of the Ancestors Year 15 Aq.
Hosted by Sacred Moon Garden Temple
San Antonio, Texas

I have just returned from this year's Lustration of the Ancestors hosted by Sacred Moon Garden Temple in San Antonio, Texas. It was a wonderful weekend and I think that everyone present had a great time. Thank you High Priestess Karen Kelly and all the members of Sacred Moon Garden Temple for doing so much to make this a delightful and memorable event for all!

Every Lustration has its own special flavor. Yes, the same basic activities are common to all Lustration weekends, but the location, the mix of people, the individual schedule of the event all combine to make each one different. This Lustration was a very laid back, intimate occasion with a strong family feeling.

The Lustration was held at San Antonio's beautiful Indigo hotel overlooking the San Antonio river. As always many people came a long way to be here. However, Texas being what it is, even some of the 'local' people had traveled a long time to attend. Rev. Angela Munn and I came in from north and south Florida respectively. Rev. Mike and Arch Priestess Stephanie Neal came in from Georgia. Arch Priestess Windy Lajoie came in from Massachusetts. Rev. Eblis came in from Mexico. Rev. Anastisia came from New Mexico. Catherine and Brandon Bolton drove down several hours from north Texas.

The Lustration also welcomed special guests Wendy Rule and Timothy Van Diest.

Ron Sorenson and Jamie Bruno of Sacred Moon Garden deserve special mention for their hard work leading up to and during the event. In addition Janthony Chama and Brandon Bolton deserve special thanks for serving as security for the event.

Friday night's activities began with opening remarks from Rev. Karen Kelly and myself. This was followed by a presentation by Rev. David Sparks of Spiritualis Compassare Witan Shrine. Rev. David' presentation discussed community building by example. After this Rev. Aprel Melder and Jamie Bruno offered a presentation on the importance of diversity and working together, using the movie "Room on the Broom" as an example of the benefits of being inclusive. We then adjourned to a delightful dinner courtesy of chef Rueben. This was followed by a wonderful concert from Wendy Rule and Timothy Van Diest.

Although the Lustration ceremony usually occurs on Sunday, this time it was done on Saturday in order to accommodate special time restraints. So Saturday began with a run-through to prepare for the ceremony, followed by the Lustration ritual itself. It was a beautiful ceremony.

Lady Karen prepared the altar, which was then hung with the banner of the Mother Temple, and the banners Arch Priestess Windy and myself.

The Lustration began with a peace prayer led by Rev. Aprel Melder. This was done as part of our larger "Spiritual War for Peace" campaign. As always I emphasize that "Peace" is not merely the absence of conflict, but also the presence of justice. Peace exists only when all good people can live a safe and free life without fear of being hurt or killed for no reason. We thank Rev. Aprel and the members of Sacred Moon Garden for upholding the spirit of peace during Lustration!

Rev. Eblis acted as Guardian, opening the ceremony with the ritual challenge. Ron Sorenson acted as Vocifer and Sonifer. Lady Karen acted as Aquifer and Wesley Taylor as Lucifer, performing the cleansing and blessing with water and fire. The Quarter Guardians were Rev. Aprel Melder in the East, Christopher Garman in the South, Rev. Anastisia in the West, and Wesley Taylor in the North. Rev. Angela Munn acted as Rite Lector with Rev. Mike Neal as Rite Priest. Wendy Rule kindly accepted the role of Rite Priestess. Arch Priestess Windy Lajoie stood for the Correllian Council of Elders with Rev. Tom Siegrist as her Herald. Rev. Aprel and Rev. Anastisia were the Offertory Priestesses. Catherine and Brandon Bolton acted as Califers, facilitating the toast. Arch Priestess Stephanie Neal stood for the First Priestess and I acted in my capacity as First Priest.

This was the Oracle brought through from the Beloved Ancestors:

“There are many days before you, but not so many as you think. Act then, in the day you find yourself –for life passes quickly, no matter how long. Embrace the moment and move within it. Many trials await in the next three years not only you, but all the world. It is a time of great shifting and great change. And there is for many great pain in the changing –and for others, great joy. Play your role, for the time is upon you to do those things that you are called to do. Let Spirit move within you. Follow the voice that guides you. Set your hand to the work that is before you and your path shall be the one of joy. Know that the world is changing. It always is changing, but it is changing more in this time more quickly than in other times. Embrace the change and be the change. Walk the path you have chosen and be the light when others cannot see. Lead the way when others do not know how to proceed. Embrace love and peace, and oppose fear and pain. And carry forth the banner of love even as the forces of hate bang their shields and gnash their teeth. But know that in every moment all potential exists and in every person the power to change the world resides. Know the world you want and champion it –and verily it shall come to pass. For we call you –our children– to the work you are to do and we tell you –now is the time to do it. These then are the words of the Ancestors, and we give you our love and we give you our blessing now and always.

The following awards were given:

The Order of the Copper Athame was awarded to

Rev. Sherry Cooper for her work in rebuilding the Order of Herbal Studies, and Jeremy Taylor for his work with ecological and conservationist causes especially the magazine
Conservationist For Kids.

The Order of the Golden Wand was awarded to

Rev. Kai Aidan for her humanitarian efforts in emergency relief during the severe weather of the recent winter and for charitable activities including the Enchanted Yule Program,
Rev. Elizabeth Hamilton for her work with Correllian media,
Rev. Karen Kelly for her humanitarian work with animals and with the homeless,
Rev. Angela Munn for her work in community building and outreach especially in regard to Pagan Pride,
Rev. Teresa Costa Schoppe for her work with the Order of Herbal Studies,
Rev. Sande Smith for her work with Correllian Offerings, and
Rev. Coral Turner for her services to the Correllian community in Australia and New Zealand.

The Order of the Silver Chalice was awarded to

Rev. Jon Anastasio for his work in creating music and healing meditations.

The Order of the Iron Pentacle was awarded to

Rev. Catha Moren,
Rev. David MacDonald, and
Rev. Wolfciaara, for their work in revising the Tradition’s Reiki materials.

The Order of the Thurible was awarded to

Rev. Nubia Lazzo for her role as a Peace Warrior and many other humanitarian efforts,
Rev. Harwe Tuileva for her efforts in developing the Correllian community in Spain and her role in Heading the Correllian Shamans Spanish language division, and

Rev. John Bertrum Ford for his services to the Correllian community in Canada.

In addition the Chancellor's Special Service Award was given to Rev. Principle Therion de Firma of Venezuela for his services in translating Correllian materials liturgy into Spanish,
Rev. Lily Greene for her multifaceted work in the Tradition administration especially in regard to higher studies, and Ron Sorenson for his many acts of support for the Tradition over the course of several years.

Congratulations to all of those receiving awards! Because of the very large number of nominations we receive each cycle, not everyone who is nominated will always receive an award. So if you nominated someone whose name does not appear here, please feel free to nominate them again in the next cycle!

The last time we held Lustration in Texas a large number of people were named to the Correllian Council of Elders or to new Offices within it. One of these was acclaimed as an Elder, the others as Provisional Elders –meaning that they would attain full Elder status in the passage of time. Yet another was named as Regent for the First Priestess. In the four years since that time these people have developed in differing ways. Three unfortunately imploded and had to be removed from office. The others however have fulfilled or exceeded all of our hopes for them. It is my great pleasure to say that as of this Lustration Arch Priestess Anna Rowe and Arch Priestess Windy Lajoie have both become fully and permanently seated on the Council.

In addition we have taken this Lustration as the occasion to acclaim a new Proto Elder. Rev. Eblis of Dragon Temple in Mexico has been acclaimed as a Proto-Elder of the Correllian Tradition in recognition of his many years of service to the Correllian Hispanic community. Congratulations Rt. Rev. Eblis, Arch Priest and Elder!

After the ceremony we had a chance to see something of San Antonio, which was in the final weekend of its famous Fiesta season.

Saturday evening we reassembled for a second wonderful concert by Wendy Rule and Timothy Van Diest.

Saturday evening also marked the end of the Silent Auction that accompanies the Lustration cycle, and this Auction was one of the most successful ever! I want to thank everyone who contributed items to the Auction and everyone who took part in the Auction! And of course I must give special thanks to Rev. Mike Neal and Rt. Rev. Anna Rowe who do so much work to put the Auction on –it is a huge undertaking! Thank you Rev. Mike, Lady Anna, donors and participants! The Tradition is grateful to you all!

Sunday morning we had the Deeming ceremony, presided over by Templar Grand Deemstress Rev. Angela Munn. Although there had been seven applications this cycle, only one group successfully completed the Deeming: Templum Ignis Aeternam headed by High Priest Alexandros Armaos, which now advances from Witan Shrine to Proto-Temple status.

After the Deeming I offered a presentation and question-and-answer session which among other things discussed coming changes in the relationship between the Tradition and Witch School, as well as the new Temple Mentor option opening for Correllian Shrine and Temple Heads to Mentor their group's students using the School's online resources.

The final offering of the weekend was a presentation on deeper symbolism in the Tarot from First Elder Rt. Rev. Stephanie Neal.

This marked the formal close of the weekend. However a group of us who remained then enjoyed a boat tour of the San Antonio river –a most delightful experience!

Unfortunately at the same time that we were celebrating Lustration a major tragedy was unfolding on the other side of the world – the Nepal earthquake. Our hearts go out to the Nepalese people, who experienced tremendous loss of life and destruction of property including many sacred historic sites. Primarily Hindu, Nepal is also the birthplace of Buddhism and has a proud and important spiritual history, many of whose physical artifacts are now in ruins even as thousands of its people have been killed and thousands more injured. Many people are organizing relief efforts including Pagan civil rights leader Patrick McCollum who's Patrick McCollum Foundation (www.patrickmccollum.org) is focusing relief efforts on the rural Helambu region. I urge those who can do so to contribute to the relief effort, and for all of us to pray for the people of Nepal.

And Monday, before many of us had even returned home, we became aware of a second event -the uprising in Baltimore. I am sure that everyone reading this knows that for many months tensions have been high in the US over race relations and issues in the justice system. Year 14 Aq. was marked by a large number of peaceful demonstrations as well as violent uprisings across the US. Monday the city of Baltimore moved from peaceful demonstration to rioting, the first such clash of this year. Our hearts go out to all those on all sides who are affected by this situation. All are equally worthy of compassion and most are undoubtedly doing their best in a bad situation. Sadly this is a situation that will only get worse unless it is made better through the efforts of good people to address the serious social problems underlying it. Situations such as this or the Mattewan Massacre or the Battle of Blair Mountain do not come out of nowhere and they do not simply resolve themselves without the issues that caused them being addressed. It is certainly true that "All Lives Matter" but there does seem to be a distinct lack of understanding in some parts of the nation that #BlackLivesMatter –and you cannot truthfully say the former unless you can also say the latter. The rule of law is vitally important and the vast majority of law enforcement personnel are good people doing a good job – but that does not change the fact that there is a problem among a few that must be addressed. I urge everyone to pray for peace and work for justice – for peace cannot exist without justice.

These two events together cannot but call attention to the Oracle of the Ancestors –which tells us that the time to act is upon us. We who walk the path of Spirit are called to heal the world and make it better. We were called to act as Midwives to the Turning of the Age and now are called to help focus the emerging energies of the Age. Many competing points of view are battling to shape the future, and many of these desire a very different future than we do. ISIL in the Middle East, Christianist Extremists in the West, Witch Hunters in Africa –there are very many people working hard to build a violent and bloody future that we as Pagans do not really want to see built. If we wish to see a future of Peace and Justice, if we wish to see a future of compassion and humanity, we must work as hard for these goals as those who seek a future of violence and oppression are working for their goals. If we desire a future of Peace and Justice we must work to create it through prayer, through magic, through example, through education, and through social action. Our future and the future of the world depends in many ways upon what we do in these next few years so we must be at pains to do what we know is right.

All in all this was a most wonderful experience –Thank you to everyone who made this weekend possible and who took part in it!

Blessings

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward.

The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfill a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

Personal Shrines

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers
